

Please keep our No Call List the way it is!! I do not want to receive any more late night or dinner hour telemarketing phone calls. They are disruptive, annoying, and, often times, rude. When asked not to call, we often are badgered. I do not want to receive these calls. Since the no call list went into effect, our lives have been calm and relaxing. We're not constantly answering the phone and dealing with sales people or surveys.